

STUDENT BEE RULES

1. A STUDENT BEE will be offered to all Radiologic Technology Students and will be divided into two (2) categories:
 - SENIOR for students who have been enrolled in an accredited program for thirteen (13) months or longer at the time of the competition. Contestants must be current LSRT members, must be able to show proof of current membership and registered for the meeting at which the Student Bee is held.
 - JUNIOR for students who have been enrolled in an accredited program for twelve (12) months or less at the time of the competition. Contestants must be current LSRT members, must be able to show proof of current membership and registered for the meeting at which the Student Bee is held.
2. The school that has the highest percentage of their students (total enrollment) participating will win a cash award of $200 to be donated by the L.S.R.T. In the case of a tie, the schools will split the $200 equally.
3. Each Program Director must return to the Student Affairs Committee Chairman, a statement of total enrollment prior to the STUDENT BEE so that accurate percentages may be calculated. Failure to do so will disqualify that school from percentage competition, but not from individual student competition.
3. Each Program Director must return to the Student Affairs Committee Chairman, a statement of total enrollment prior to the STUDENT BEE so that accurate percentages may be calculated. Failure to do so will disqualify that school from percentage competition, but not from individual student competition.
4. The first, second, and third (1st, 2nd, & 3rd) place winners in each category will be awarded individual prizes
5. Questions will be asked of each student individually. There is no team discussion.
6. The STUDENT AFFAIRS COMMITTEE shall approve and critique all questions used for competition. They will be divided into categories for senior and junior students. The references will be the same as used for the STUDENT QUIZ BOWL
7. There will be a panel of three (3) judges, whose duty shall be to rule on answers, objections, or other matters brought before it. The decision of the judges shall be final.
8. Each student will have ten (10) seconds to begin their answer after the question has been read. An official time-keeper will be present.
