PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES FOR OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

PURPOSE STATEMENT

It is the purpose and intent of the “Procedural Guidelines Manual” to provide officers and members with guidelines related to the duties and functions of specific official positions both elected and appointed. Each position, elected or appointed, should be clearly outlined and made available to elected representatives and to the general membership upon request. The “Procedural Guidelines Manual” should provide guidance and serve as reference in the performance of these duties and activities. It is intended to make clear and assure specific responsibilities attached to the holding of an elected office or appointed position and the commitment required to fulfill these responsibilities as so charged. It should be understood that in no way can this or any other guide be considered all inclusive. Professional and independent judgment must be afforded in matters of changing or individual circumstance. As an elected board, such instances shall be reviewed and addressed and considered as policy. It should be understood that the rules and regulation in the “Procedural Guidelines Manual” can be adjusted, revised, and amended as needed to maintain consistent and continued growth of the organization and its structure.

It has been determined that even though this book is a guideline only, all amendments to this “Procedural Guidelines Manual” require board approval.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

The American Society of Radiologic Technologists is a professional society; therefore, the installation ceremonies for the officers of the affiliates should be in keeping with the simple dignity accorded societies of this nature. They should be brief and exhibit the sincere and genuine warmth of appreciation and pride. (The installation of the LSRT Officers is traditionally performed by one of the following: a national representative present at LSRT Annual Meeting, a LSRT member whose has been elevated to the status of fellow by the ASRT, or an individual who has served as President more than once for the LSRT.)

The installing officer should outline the basic procedures to the participants prior to the actual ceremony. This allows each to know what is expected, when it is expected, and how to react. The President or Master of Ceremonies introduces the installing officer.

The installing officer may thank the outgoing officers and make a few general remarks to the assembly. The installation procedure may vary for each office. However, in some way it should call attention to the responsibilities of that office.

Officers may be installed individually or collectively. Ask if they will accept the office and duties. Upon affirmative reply, declare them duly installed and extend congratulations.

The installing officer should present the gavel to the newly installed President at the conclusion of the ceremony. The gavel is always passed to the President with the hand crossing the body.

THE FOLLOWING MAY BE CONSIDERED FOR BASIC INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

1. SAY TO THOSE INSTALLED:

"Will the following please come forward and stand to my right: _____, _____, _____"

2. SAY A FEW WORDS ABOUT EACH OFFICE, ITS DUTIES AND THE INDIVIDUAL WHO WILL HOLD THAT OFFICE. THEN...."Raise your right hand and repeat after me using your own name. I do solemnly swear to uphold and perform the duties and responsibilities of the office to which I was elected to the best of my abilities."

3. THEN....."I declare you duly installed officers of the _____ Society of Radiologic Technologists." "Congratulations and best wishes to you for a most successful and profitable year."

4. THE GAVEL IS PASSED TO THE PRESIDENT WHO ASSUMES THE CHAIR AND ADDRESSES THE ASSEMBLY.

SAMPLE INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Before I install the newly elected officers I want to express, first, to you President _____ and to _____, _____, _____ on retiring, the great appreciation of your membership for the services you have given. You have all helped to direct the destinies of your organization for the past year (or two). Our best wishes go with you as you retire or go on to higher office.

To be elected an officer in your Society is indeed an honor, but more than that it is a privilege, a duty, and a great responsibility. Much of the progress and success of an organization is determined by the interest, activity and unselfish devotion of its leaders. It should be the purpose of your organization to see that each of you, individually and collectively, is a part of the answer to your Society's problems and not a part of the problem itself.

Will the newly elected officers please rise.

_____, you have been elected to the office of Recording Secretary. You will keep a correct and permanent record and make available to your membership a copy of all transactions of your society.

_____, as Vice President, you will acquaint yourself with the duties of the President and be prepared to preside in the absence of the President.

_____, as President-elect, you will prepare yourself to be inducted and to assume the office of the President at the next annual meeting.

_____, the highest honor that this society can bestow upon any one of its members has been given to you.

You have been elected to assume the office of President. In your hand lies the destiny of the (name of Society) for the next year. You will contribute something entirely different from what any preceding president has given in the outstanding tapestry which is being woven. It will be a fine one and contribute much to the pattern which was started _____ years, ago when the _____ was organized. Faith is the foundation of all life. These, your members, have signified their faith in you by electing you to these high offices of leadership.

Now, members of _____, these are the officers you have elected to help administer your organization. A great deal of the effectiveness of their work depends upon your cooperation and the manner in which you work with them. Will you signify your support by rising? Thank you. (To the President) It is a pleasure now to present to you, _____, this gavel, the symbol of your authority. We have confidence that you will use it with justice, judgment and dignity. By the authority invested in me by your Chair _____, I declare you duly installed as the officers of the _____ for the fiscal period _____ or until next annual meeting.

Documented results of all matches will be turned over to the Chair of the Student Affairs Committee following completion of the Student Quiz Bowl Competition.

Moderator

The moderator shall serve as competition coordinator and may be any Radiologic Technologist not associated with the competing schools. It shall be the duty of the moderator to present all questions, confirm each answer after the judge's ruling, call official time outs, and recognize any objections from the floor. Should the LSRT contract with an out of state source (Educator if possible) for the questions, that person may serve as moderator.

Questions

The Chair of the Student Affairs Committee shall approve and critique all questions used for competition. The questions shall be submitted for consideration to the Chair of the Student Affairs Committee unless the questions are contracted out of state. All questions submitted must be accompanied by the name of the text, the volume, and the page number from which the question was selected. No true - false, or fill-in-the-blank questions will be accepted. Questions to be used will be kept by the Chair until time for competition. They may be pulled and arranged for presentation prior to the draw for team numbers. (See TEAM PAIRINGS.) If the questions are contracted for, that person will hold the questions and arrange the questions for the Quiz Bowl.

Team Pairings

A representative of each team shall meet together with the Chair of the Student Affairs Committee any time prior to the opening session of the Annual Meeting to draw for team numbers. The number shall be drawn by each representative to determine the order of first round competition. Team #1 will compete against Team #2, Team #3 against Team #4, and so on. In the case of an odd number of team entries, one bye will be given in the first round. Under no circumstances may the order of competition be changed.

Competition

The competition will be double elimination.

Each match will consist of two (2) halves, the first half with five (5) toss up questions and five (5) toss up questions in the second half. There shall be a 3-minute break midway of each match. First half questions shall have a point value of five (5) per question. Second half questions shall have a point value of ten (10) points per question. The team with the greatest point value at the end of each match shall be declared winner and move on to the next round of competition. The change of teams shall be done as quickly as possible and shall not exceed (5) minutes. Each question will be presented to both teams simultaneously. The first team to activate the buzzer will receive the opportunity to answer. There is a ten (10) second timer which starts when the buzzer is pushed. During this period, the school is recognized by the moderator and an answer given. After ten (10) seconds, a buzzer signals that time has expired for the answer. If no answer is given, or answered incorrectly, the moderator will repeat the question to the opposing team. A five (5) second time limit will apply. If no answer is given in the allotted time, the moderator will continue with the next question.

Identical questions will not occur during any given competition, and may be proportionately more difficult in each succeeding round, semifinal and/or final match.

Competition shall continue until only one team remains and is declared winner by the moderator.

Awards

Presentation of the LSRT Student Quiz Bowl championship trophy will be made at the President's Reception, along with other awards for the first and second place teams. All participants will receive a certificate of achievement.

Special Conditions

- COACHING FROM THE AUDIENCE-Any coaching or discernible answers from the audience will cause that question to be deleted from the competition.
- PREMATURE ANSWERS-A team may interrupt the moderator by activating the buzzer system at any point during the question if they feel they know the answer. If incorrect, however, the team shall be assessed the value of the question, and the same question shall then be repeated in its entirety for the opposing team. The five (5) second time limit will apply.
- ANSWERING OUT OF TURN-Teams answering without first activating the buzzer system will not be recognized by the moderator, and afford the opposing team a "free" answer.
- TIE MATCHES-If the score is tied at the end of a match, one round of three (3) tiebreaker questions shall be asked to determine the winner. The same rules, scoring and penalties (premature answers, answering out-of-turn, etc.) used in the regular round will be in effect. If this round also results in a tie, then the competition goes to a sudden death match. During sudden death matches, single questions shall be asked and the first correct answer ends the competition. In sudden death matches if the moderator deems an answer as a premature buzz in and the answer is incorrect, the opposing team is given the victory.
- OBJECTIONS-Only the team coach or program director (one to be designated) will be recognized by the moderator for the purpose of voicing an objection. Decision of the judges will be final.
- ANTIDUPLICATION/CONTENT PROTECTION-All audio/visual or hand-written note taking is strictly prohibited. Anyone caught with said paraphernalia will have it confiscated and reported to their program director.

PROVISIONS FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF MEMORIAL AWARDS

PURPOSE

Memorial Awards are established to recognize specific traits, attributes, characteristics, and or contributions of members of the LSRT and are awarded as outlined in the Foundation Requirements Criteria.

FOUNDATION REQUIREMENTS CRITERIA

1. Upon application, the named award must be accompanied by a founding "Letter of Attestation" with a brief descriptive narrative or biographical narrative as to the qualities to be recognized which justify founding the award.
2. Awards shall be based on traits, characteristics, attributes, or contributions that members possess relative to the advancement of their society and profession.
3. There should be no cash awards presented with Memorial Awards as they are to recognize genuine characteristics, contributions, etc., for which one should not be paid. The award will be in the form of a presentation of some type of plaque or trophy before the membership for recognition of the stated qualities. To submit a photo or sample of the proposed award as either trophy or plaque at the time of application is optional.
4. There should exist some letter of agreement for the funding of the award, e.g., established bank account, notarized letter of agreement to pay award when application and selection is made, etc. Awards will be funded solely by the parties making application for the foundation of memorial awards.
5. Two (2) awards with differing names that share the same characteristics or qualities will not be allowed. As application for foundation is made, the Executive Board must determine if any new awards duplicate previously founded awards prior to approval. Establishing awards of the same nature and presented to more than one (1) individual reduces the stature of awards when the objective is to recognize superior traits and contributions by a member. If application for foundation of an award is made and is quite similar or lacks discerning/differing qualities of an existing award the applicant will be notified and referred to the existing award. If the award application is approved, the applicant will be notified by the Board.
6. All awards will bear the organization name or initials of "LSRT." as it will be the sponsoring organization.
7. The award may be made as nominees are submitted with a maximum of one (1) award each year, and not necessarily as a yearly award. When a nominee is submitted and selected the founder will be notified to obtain or fund the award for presentation. The founder maintains the option of presentation of the award.
8. The Executive Board will be responsible for review and selection of award nominees. Decisions are based on the award foundation criteria relative to the member and nominating letter. Additional information may be requested from anyone submitting a nominee. All decisions by the Board shall be final.
9. In the event that founders cease support and funding of awards, notice should be provided to discontinue publishing of award notices and to eliminate the award category. If another party wishes to assume foundation of an award to maintain award qualities they may apply through the same application process requesting renaming of the award.
10. Memorial award provisions, foundation applications & criteria, nominee submissions, etc., shall be maintained by the Chair of the Board. They shall correspond with foundation applicants, foundations, members who submit nominees, and with the Focal Spot Monitor or other publications for Publishing Award Announcements.
11. Nominations/criteria for awards will be published in the Focal Spot Monitor in the January and April issues.
12. Awards will be presented at the LSRT Annual Meeting Awards Luncheon or Presidential Reception.
